NEW COUNTY ROAD WITH A CUTOFF

A large delegation of North Ogden and Pleasant View property owners have waited on the board of county commissioners and earnestly petitioned them to change the course of the county and state road in the vicinity of North Ogden and Pleasant View. The matter was taken under advisement.

The petitioners asked that the road be changed so as to follow the bank of the North Ogden canal from the Sidney Stevens store at North Ogden to a point near the Pleasant View school house. It was stated by the North Ogden and Pleasant View representatives that this course will obviate a heavy grade over the North Ogden hill and also lessen the distance between Ogden and Pleasant View about half a mile. The distance of the proposed cut-off is only a mile and a half.

The board of commissioners, as a committee of the whole, will make a careful study of the situation and use their best efforts to get some concessions from parties owning land over which the cut-off would be built. The matter has been under consideration before and it is said by the commissioners that about the only drawback is the fact that property owners have asked too much for the right-of-way. A report will be forthcoming in the near future.

The petition of J. M. Wheeler to establish weighing scales along the county road at Slaterville was granted.

FOREIGN MISSION REPORT.

We had purposed giving our subscribers a full copy of the report of the committee sent out by the International Bible Students association, with Pastor Russell chairman for investigation of foreign mission conditions, etc. We find that the report with its illustrations would occupy far more of our space than we could justly devote to it. We have, however, made another arrangement for the benefit of such of our readers as are interested in foreign missions. We have arranged that you may write a post card giving your name and address and saying that you are subscribers to the Evening Standard. In response you will get post free an illustrated copy of the report. Address your post card: International Bible Students Association, 17 Hicks street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

CANNING IS A BIG INDUSTRY

According to figures that have just been compiled by O. J. Stillwell, secretary of the Ogden publicity bureau, $722,840.95 worth of tomatoes, $169,950 worth of peas, $159,975 worth of miscellaneous vegetables, $129,476 worth of fruits, $68,589.50 worth of catsup, $27,360 worth of string beans, and $10,797.50 worth of pumpkins were canned in Weber county during the year 1911. The estimate is based upon figures furnished to the publicity bureau by H. L. Herrington, secretary of the Utah Canning company. The figures show that 1,555 people were employed in the canning factories of this county last year, and that the sum of $87,665.40 was paid out for labor. The farmers and fruit growers received $326,000 for their products.

Mr. Stillwell contends that Utah can live on the products she can raise and manufacture, and he is planning to make a big campaign for the development of home industries. The quality of local factory products is undisputed. The fact that 48 per cent of Utah canned goods are sold on foreign markets is sufficient proof that Utah products are good, and Weber county leads them all when it comes to canning.

The publicity bureau is also making an effort to have a can factory established in this city, as $100,000 worth of cans is shipped into Utah annually, and it is estimated that a can factory could be conducted quite profitably in this city.

THE NOSE A FILTER TO STRAIN THE AIR

Catarrh Clogged Nostrils
A Breeding Place for Deadly Germs

The nostrils are perfect "air filters" and when kept in clean healthy state, straining every bit of air we breathe, catching all dust particles, foreign matter and germs. The air is full of germs. You cannot dodge them, but you can safe-guard yourself against catarrh and other diseases contracted in the process of breathing by keeping the nostrils clean and healthy. Catarrh germs will sometimes get in their work, and you may mistake the symptoms for an ordinary cold.

Don't take any chances. If you have a stuffed up feeling in the head, or if your throat is sore or filled with phlegm, just grease the nostrils with a little Ely's Cream Balm, draw the pure, aromatic fumes back in the head, and you will be astonished at the effect. In a few minutes you will feel a loosening up in the head, the nasty discharge will soon be stopped, the soreness gone, and you will feel a sense of genuine relief.

Ely's Cream Balm not only wards off catarrh, but will quickly cure even a chronic, longstanding case of catarrh. It takes the trouble right where it starts, in the nose and throat, cleanses, heals and strengthens the raw, sore inside skin, or membrane, and in this way drives out catarrh and makes you proof against this filthy, disgusting disease.

Summer Colds, which often hang on for weeks, can be quickly cured with this cleansing, healing, anti-septic balm. All druggists sell it for fifty cents a bottle, and the one bottle is generally all that is needed to effect a complete cure. Try it today. A. R. McIntyre, Drugs.

A-MAYING.

The little girl I used to be Loved well to go a-Maying,
With rustic basket on her arm,
Into the woods a-straying.

No blossoms fair, nor graceful fern
Escaped her nimble fingers.
The fragrance of those wildings sweet
Still in her memory lingers.

Her basket filled for one best loved
Her child heart knew no other;
She bore her woodland treasures home
And gave them to her mother.

Oh! little girl I used to be,
Soon, soon your skies were clouded.
The brightness of your happy home
In deepest gloom was shrouded.

Oh! care worn woman, bowed and gray,
And sore beset with sorrow;
Lift up your head, for there shall dawn
For you a glad tomorrow.

And you shall find your loved ones gone,
In heavenly fields far straying;
And clasp them to your longing heart
For an eternal Maying.

O. H. S. ALUMNI DANCING PARTY

The closing event of commencement week in which the class of 1911-12 and '12 O. H. S. figured as guests of honor, was the reception and dancing party given under the auspices of the O. H. S. Alumni association, at the large ballroom at the High school.

A select crowd of invited guests was present and the affair was a distinct social success.

The orchestra stand was hidden by a cluster of palms and a splendid program of popular dance music for the twenty-one numbers was furnished by a seven-piece orchestra under the direction of W. P. Foster.

A feature that was appreciated was the serving of delicious refreshments from a prettily arranged booth.

The party was adjourned at 12 p. m.

FIFTY YEARS AFTER THE WAR

Rev. F. V. Fisher, in his sermon in the Methodist church on "Fifty Years Ago," said:

"The big business of America is plainly to solve the great problems of humanity for all the rest of the world. That alone explains our problems of the past and of the present." Speaking of the sacredness of Memorial day and its memories, Mr. Fisher said in part:

"It is now fifty years after the very heart of the Civil War. It hardly seems possible, but when we view the changes of the years we can see that it is. But a few years ago and everything in America was dated from the war, every hero had his war record, all our politics and life was founded on the war. Now over two-thirds of our people were born since the sixties, not a candidate for president today has a war record or was big enough in '62 to remember those days. None of our problems are war problems, and no longer we know north and south, but rich and poor, trusts and unions, capital and labor."

"Yet just as the vital questions of the revolution grew out of the days of settlement and the Civil war out of the revolution, so the battles in America we have to settle in this generation started in the sixties."

ALL WRONG.

The Mistake Is Made by Many Ogden Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause. It is wrong to imagine relief is cure.

Backache is kidney ache. You must cure the kidneys. An Ogden resident tells you how. Mrs. A. M. Hotelling, 2581 Grant St., Ogden, Utah, says: "For nearly three years I have known of Doan's Kidney Pills, and whenever I feel that my kidneys need toning up I take this remedy. A short time ago one of my relatives was afflicted with weakness of the kidneys and although he was treated by physicians and used many preparations said to be good for such complaints, his condition became worse. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Radway's Pharmacy, were finally used and the contents of one box effected a complete cure. I trust that this statement will lead other kidney sufferers to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

Mrs. Hotelling gave the above testimonial in July, 1906, and when interviewed on July 30, 1909, she said: "The statement I gave in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills some time ago was correct in every particular. You may continue its publication."

DAMAGE BY FLOOD NOT SEVERE

Job Pingree, field manager for the Amalgamated Sugar company, has made investigations regarding the damage done to crops in the Marriott and Slaterville districts by the flood waters of the Ogden river, and he finds that not much damage was done. The cold spell lowered the stream to a point where it was not difficult to rebuild the levee at the head of the Marriott ditch and turn the waters back into the channel before they had washed the lands to a great extent.

Some damage has been done, Mr. Pingree says, but much less than was expected. He thinks, however, that it will be necessary for the farmers to cultivate the surface of the lands as soon as they are dry enough, to avoid the ground baking when warm weather returns. By this means the loss may be minimized and the crop kept well up to the standard.

THEATERS

AT LYCEUM.

"Pierre of the Plains" is the drama that is holding the boards at the Lyceum theater this week and its production by the Empire Stock company is one of the best things of the sort that has been seen in that playhouse this season.

Seldy Roach, who is an actor of great versatility, is taking the title role in the play, and his conception of the character is a very accurate one. Birch De Lappe is playing the part of Jap Furkin and Robert Churchill has the part of Matt Galbraith. Dorothy Weeks has the best feminine role in the play.

The other parts are well handled and the play is a highly entertaining one for those who enjoy good drama.

SALT LAKE AND STATE NEWS

SWINDLERS HAD TO DISGORGE

Salt Lake, May 28.—Through the aid of the police and his attorneys, Charles Anderson, the rancher of Mackay, Idaho, who was swindled out of nearly $6,000 by confidence men May 11, has recovered all but $2,000 of his fortune. Besides the certificates on Idaho banks, amounting to $2,402.50, which were returned to Anderson through his attorneys several days ago, the police succeeded yesterday in forcing "Jack" Porter, held as one of the swindlers, to disgorge an additional $1,500 in cash. Porter is still held under a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, although it is probable he will be released soon.

Porter was arrested in Pocatello and was brought back to Salt Lake by Inspector C. A. Carlson after a strenuous resistance to the extradition proceedings. After several days in the city jail he was given full liberty upon promising to do all in his power to recover some of the money, the police releasing him upon his honor only.

When arrested Porter had several diamonds aggregating in value about $1,000. These he pawned yesterday, turning the money over to Anderson through the rancher's attorneys, together with other money raised by him in a manner unknown to the police.

Anderson was swindled on a fake horse racing scheme. He came to Salt Lake with several hundred dollars in cash and certificates of deposit on local and Idaho banks, the whole amounting to about $6,000. He was induced to sign them over to his betrayers, whom he met as he stepped from an Oregon Short Line train.

The swindlers succeeded in cashing a $1,000 certificate at Walker Brothers' bank and a $2,000 certificate at McCormick's bank. Payment was stopped on the Idaho certificates, although it was feared that Anderson might yet lose them should they fall into the hands of an innocent purchaser. Much detective work and legal negotiations of a mysterious character resulted in the recovery of the outstanding certificates.

MANY VACANCIES IN SALT LAKE SCHOOLS.

Salt Lake, May 28.—Many teachers in the public schools of Salt Lake City have declined reappointment for the next term, a total of sixty-three declinations having been received by the school board up to yesterday. Many of the women teachers who are withdrawing from school work do so, it is said, to enter the matrimonial state.

Included in the list made public yesterday of the teachers who will not return to their work next fall was the name of Prof. George A. Eaton of the high school faculty. Professor Eaton said last night, however, that he would again be a member of the faculty, his name not having been placed on the list because of his neglect in submitting his acceptance of the position. This was done, he said yesterday. The following teachers will be missing from their accustomed places when the next school year opens this fall, with the exception of a few who have neglected to send in their formal acceptance:

Ronella Anderson, Ethel Graham, Marie Cushing, Riddotta, Parmenter, Farrol Anderson, Bertha Tyree, Lacy Farnsworth, Mame Stohl, Ruth Armstrong, Edna Evans, May Galbraith, Annie Holmes, Lucy Russell, Lucie P. Peterson, Mary E. Roberts, Nellie Allen, Mary Paul, Rachel Ure, Myrtle Brown, Lydia Palmer, Clara Kener, Ethel McDonald, Edith Smith, Alice R. Christensen, E. E. H. Scott, Sara E. Karriek, Ivy Wilkinson, Cecil Shores, Crescent Smith, Edith Christy, Thille Penny, Florence Farnsworth, Rose McDonough, Erma Pendleton, Florence Beard, Helen Leitchfield, Ortho Fairbanks, C. E. Angell, Gertrude Flagel, Willie McDonald, Libbie Cushing, Katrina Mills, Ada Bentley, Nellie Rossner, Mattie Porter, Carrie Sappington, Allen Backus, Edward Greenwell, Elda Havenor, Marjorie Simmons, Emily C. Curtis, W. J. Bates, Elsie J. Ward, Herbert Peterson, Winifred Dyer, E. A. Morgan, Marie T. Moffett, Mathilde Domenge, L. P. Hague, H. G. Richardson, E. P. Christensen.

IDEAL PRODUCTION OF "THE CREATION"

Salt Lake, May 28.—Successful in every detail was the rendition of "The Creation" under the direction of Squire Coop, on the campus of the University of Utah yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Maggie Toot Browning, Fred Smith and M. J. Brines, soloists in Hayden's great oratorio, sang the chief roles in magnificent voice and spirit; the chorus of the University Music society and the orchestra were splendid throughout.

ATTORNEY GENERAL SIDES WITH UTLEY.

San Diego, May 27.—Attorney General U. B. Webb, who with his chief deputy, Raymond Benjamin, came to San Diego at the order of Governor Johnson to investigate the I. W. W. situation, announced last night that if prosecution of persons connected with either side of the so-called "free speech" controversy were undertaken, he would act conjointly with District Attorney R. S. Utley.

It was District Attorney Utley who was charged by Harris Weinstein, Governor Johnson's special commissioner, with having been derelict in his duty.

Mr. Webb and Mr. Benjamin passed the day in automobilizing. They motored across the international border into Mexico, visiting Tijuana, the scene of a battle in the revolution which resulted in the overthrow of the Diaz regime.

The district attorney stated after their return that he had no idea whether he would conduct a formal investigation of the troubles here. He said he could not tell how long it would take him to learn all the facts in the matter.

The War Department has announced that a hearing will be held in Chicago in June on the complaints against the fixed bridge built by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy about 29 years ago across the Illinois river in La Salle county. The boat owners want a drawbridge.

BAND OUT OF A FACTORY IS COMING

That several cities of the south and west are to be favored this summer with a unique musical treat is evidenced through a bulletin received yesterday by Paul L. Beemer of the Union Pacific railway from the tours bureau of the Harriman lines at Chicago, covering the annual vacation trip of the famous Overland Factory band of Toledo, O., known as the finest amateur musical organization in the United States. The fifty employees of the Willys-Overland company who comprise the band are preparing to enjoy their annual outing as guests of President Willys.

According to advices received by Mr. Beemer the band will leave Toledo early in June, traveling in three special cars, their itinerary including St. Louis, Memphis, New Orleans, Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, El Paso, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Portland, Ogden, Cheyenne, Colorado Springs, Denver, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Milwaukee and Chicago. They will reach Ogden about July 1.

John N. Willys, sole owner and executive head of this great industry, is a firm believer in the promotion of efficiency through the provision of opportunities for social diversion and recreation. Bowling alleys, an athletic association, which has for years past furnished the football and baseball champions of the city leagues; a golf club of 90 voices, a handsome and commodious club house on the shores of Lake Erie, where employees and their families can enjoy its pleasures during the summer months; a dramatic society, band concerts, dances and entertainments during the winter months—all these are part of a comprehensive plan to raise the standard of living and to make that living more worth while.

Under the leadership of Director Gustave Koehler, the Overland band has been noted throughout the north and east as a musical organization of the highest type, amateur only in that they play solely for pleasure and not for profit. These men represent the true artistic type, harmonic expression, without thought of gain or compensation.

On former trips of this kind it has been customary for the band to give a number of complimentary concerts wherever train schedules would permit. It is hoped that some arrangements can be made with the band to break their journey here long enough to enable them to be heard in one of the city parks.

DELEGATES TO LOGAN MEETING

The following delegates were selected today by the county commissioners to attend the county Good Roads convention to be held at Logan, June 12, 13 and 14:

County Clerk Samuel G. Dye of Ogden, County Road Commissioner Joseph Story of North Ogden, John C. Child, superintendent of the county infirmary of Roy; Andrew S. Allen, deputy road commissioner of Huntsville, and John T. Bybee, former county commissioner of Riverdale.

The Massachusetts legislature has rejected the bill recommended by Governor Foss to provide for the merger of the Boston & Maine with the New Haven and for the electrification and other improvements at Boston, the senate rejecting it by a vote of 15 to 20. Governor Foss has told his friends that he shall call an extra session of the legislature in July for the purpose of passing the bill.
